Most Value Creation

Introducing an exciting and most timely new category in Top in Tech Innovation Awards this year, our "Most Value Creation" category. This is when the proverbial rubber meets the road i.e. show me the money category! Most timely as with stock markets swooning, inflation looming, valuations falling; investors want to see startups grow up and start making money.

And that's what this category's finalists will have demonstrated...that they have created value for their investors through free cash flows and profitability and thereby showing increased valuation since being invested in! This is going to be a tough category. .

Can the submissions impress our Lead Judge, Dr V Sivapalan, and his team of judges?

Most Impactful Academia-Industry Collaboration
